

Ready to Return

Amazing opportunity to bridge your career gap and get back to work!

Ready to Get Back to Work?

Join forces with one of Colorado's Best Tech Companies!

ReadyTalk's Ready to Return program is a 22-week paid internship program designed for individuals who long to return to work after a hiatus.

This program is a unique opportunity if you are passionate about technology, want to work for a top company in Colorado, are eager to update your skills in today's workplace and want to build your network. We support a smooth transition into the workforce by providing both part-time and full-time hours.

Program Overview

Duration: 22 weeks (Sept. 2016 – Feb. 2017)

Highlights:

- Paid internship
- Hands-on, career-related experience
- Regular meetings with assigned mentor and department manager
- Shadowing in different departments at ReadyTalk
- Individual career coaching
- Networking opportunities
- Resume writing workshop
- Transition assistance

Requirements:

Applicants must have

- At least a two-year gap in their resume
- Proven career success in a related role prior to taking a career break

Please note, this program is not for:

- Individuals looking to make a career change
- New graduates
- Individuals completing intensive training courses in specific technologies (e.g., Galvanize)

Return to Work | Get Paid | Expand Network | Build Skills

What are you waiting for? Apply today!

Find open positions at www.readytalk.com/about/careers-readytalk.

For questions, contact:

Brandon Pelly
brandon.pelly@readytalk.com
303.209.1632

Meghan DeAngelis
meghan.deangelis@readytalk.com
303.209.1731